

STAPLE Investments Welcomes Will Harmeyer as Investment Analyst

NORTHERN VIRGINIA – July 1, 2025 – STAPLE Investments is pleased to announce the addition of Will Harmeyer as an Investment Analyst. Will's analytical expertise and strong quantitative skills position him as a valuable asset in supporting STAPLE's investment initiatives.

Originally from Cincinnati, Will graduated from the University of Notre Dame, where he earned a degree in Applied Computational Mathematics and Statistics. His rigorous academic background equips him with a solid foundation in quantitative analysis and data-driven decision-making.

“We are excited to welcome Will to the STAPLE Investments team,” said Dr. Tim Reichert, Co-CEO of STAPLE Investments. “Will's strong analytical capabilities and enthusiasm for problem-solving will significantly contribute to our mission of partnering with entrepreneurs to build sustainable, mission-driven enterprises.”

In his personal time, Will enjoys hobbies such as boating, running, chess, and poker.

For media inquiries, please contact: contact@stapleinvestments.com